McCOY FELLOWSHIP OF DISTINCTION

PURPOSE:

To encourage students with intellectual/creative promise and leadership to complete a master's degree in the Emmett & Miriam McCoy College of Business Administration at Texas State University-San Marcos.

AWARD AMOUNTS:

The FELLOWSHIP OF DISTINCTION requires a minimum enrollment of 6 graduate semester hours (5000 level or above) required for a business degree with an award of $1,500 per semester. Awards are disbursed on a semester by semester basis for the academic year.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Master's students must have a 3.25 GPA on the last 60 hours of course work leading to the first bachelor's degree or a GMAT score of 600 or higher. To be eligible to reapply, students must have earned a 3.5 GPA on master's course work.

To be eligible for the FELLOWSHIP OF DISTINCTION, an applicant must be eligible to be admitted or must have already been admitted to the McCoy Graduate School of Business.

Applicants who have already been admitted must submit all fellowship application materials to the McCoy College (530 McCoy Hall) by March 1. Applicants who have not yet completed the application for admission must submit all admission application materials along with fellowship application materials by March 1. Admission information may be obtained from the Office of the Graduate College located in J.C. Kellam Administration Building, Suite 280; by calling 512-245-2581; or by accessing the website at <http://www.gradcollege.txstate.edu/>.

SELECTION:

The McCoy College Graduate Policies Committee will select the best qualified applicants and make award recommendations to the Dean of McCoy College who will make the final selections. The fellowship application form may be found at <http://www.business.txstate.edu/forms/graduate/application.pdf>.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

A student who does not enroll the semester of the award must contact the Graduate College in writing to 1) advise regarding intent on attendance in future semesters, and 2) inquire about eligibility for future semesters.

A student who drops a course after initial enrollment and falls below the required 6 hours, must contact the Director of Graduate Business Programs in 530 McCoy Hall in writing to find out about 1) how to reimburse the University for that semester, and 2) eligibility for future semesters (if applicable). A student in his or her final semester must contact the Director in writing to request approval to enroll in fewer than the required 6 hours.
